

USEFUL BOOKS AND WEBSITES

YOU ARE THE STUDENT VOICE | ONTARIO.CA/SPEAKUP

Take Action! A Guide to Active Citizenship, Craig and Mark Kielburger, 2007.
This is a step-by-step guide showing students how to get organized and moving to tackle important issues in their communities, schools, countries and around the world.

The Teen Guide to Global Action, Barbara Lewis, 2008.
This guide tells the story of young inspiring change makers while providing practical tools you can use to get involved.

www.b2ds.ca

Beatz to da Streetz is a youth-led arts program that aims to provide a safe and supportive space for youth ages 16 to 24.

www.whatkidscando.org

What Kids Can Do advocates for learning that engages students as knowledge creators and brings youth voices to policy debates about school, society, and world affairs. An example of a project highlighted on this website is "A Beautiful Brotherhood." This is a theatre group where young black men have a safe place to discuss issues like sex, fathers, anger and drug addiction.

<http://mindblown.edublogs.org/2008/06/09/weve-got-a-message>

"We've Got a Message" is a student-produced video that includes students sharing their thoughts and feelings about teaching and learning.

www.laidlawfdn.org/cms/

Laidlaw Foundation promotes positive youth development through inclusive youth engagement in the arts, environment and in community.

<http://www.tolerance.org/teens/10ways.jsp>

Teaching Tolerance encourages young people to create change in their schools and communities by providing ideas and tools to help break the walls of division.